VIRGINIAN'S MANY MARITAL TROUBLES.

James Hutchins Served a Penitentiary Term for Shooting One of Wife's Admirers.

The following special telegram from New York tells an interesting story of the jealousy of a Portsmouth, Va., man, who some years ago killed a man of whom he was jealous, and was sentenced to the penitentiary, but later pardoned by Governor Tyler:

Accused of kidnapping the young son of James Hutchins, of Portsmouth, Va., Edwin B. Valk, a salesman living at the Rosemont Hotel, is now under $1,000 bonds for appearance on Friday, when he will be examined. The complainant against Valk is Mr. Hutchins himself, the boy's father. Both Hutchins and his wife come from prominent southern families, and their married life has been sensational. The husband having once shot a man who was paying attention to Mrs. Hutchins. The present trouble, according to Mrs. Carhart, a sister of Mrs. Hutchins, came about the purchase of a new automobile. Mrs. Hutchins, who is now in the penitentiary, had telegraphed for the husband, and he came to this city. The arrest of Valk followed.

Hutchins and his wife were married about fourteen years ago. At the time he was sixteen, and she was fifteen years old. According to Mrs. Carhart, the couple frequently quarreled. Mrs. Carhart says that when the Spanish-American war started, Hutchins enlisted with the Portsmouth Rifles, and went to Cuba. On his return he learned that his wife had been talking and walking with a man named Robert Shaw. He was jealous, and one night about three years ago, Mrs. Carhart says, Hutchins found his wife on the porch of their home talking to Shaw. Hutchins drew a pistol and shot Shaw dead. Shaw had been employed as a clerk in the office of the Seaboard Air Line at Portsmouth, and was well connected. Hutchins was arrested and tried and completed his sentence in the penitentiary. He was pardoned by Governor Tyler, of Virginia, on the recommendation of the jury that convicted him. After he left the penitentiary Hutchins sent his wife to this city to live with Mrs. Carhart. Mrs. Carhart says that several months ago Mrs. Hutchins met Valk. He paid her a great deal of attention, she says, and took her out to places of amusement. About a week ago the sisters quarreled over Valk, and Mrs. Hutchins left her home, taking her twelve-year-old son, Edmund, with her. Mrs. Carhart immediately telegraphed for Hutchins, and he came to New York. He went with Mrs. Carhart to the West Forty-seventh Street Station, and Hutchins accused Valk of kidnapping his boy.

REVISION COMMITTEE WILL REPORT ON BILLS.

The Committee on Final Revision and Adjustment, named by the Legislature to review and report on the bills already passed by the body, will report to the Assembly tomorrow on the bills introduced and not passed when the Assembly reconvenes on November 10th.

This is a fact that does not seem generally known, but an examination of the resolution under which the committee is working shows this to be so.

This adds considerable work to the task of handling the laws already passed, for the calendars of both houses and many of the committees are crowded with bills of more or less importance to the public, many of which have been set on special and continuing orders for the next two or three days after the reassembling of the Legislature.

It is evident that the body will be here until about the 20th of December, and on the first Wednesday in January the body to be chosen this fall will come in.

S. P. C. A. REPORT.

Attention of Society Called to Horses Drawing "Union" Wagons.

The Richmond Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals held a regular meeting Tuesday evening. The report submitted by the agent follows: Drivers and males sent to stable to be cared for; 20 overdriven teams; 11 drivers discharged; 3 cared for by agent; 3 veterinary called; 3 cases for complaint; 7 cruelties to dogs; 1 total; 9 small animals destroyed; 28 large animals destroyed; 11 total; 38.

The attention of the society was called to the bad condition of horses to "union wagons," and to dogs packed together and sent by express; the latter were put in large boxes, fed and watered and allowed to run around before they continued their journey.

Entertained Company. Sergeant T. E. Johnson gave the members of Company H a very delightful entertainment and supper at his residence, No. 103 N. Twenty-sixth Street, last night. Mr. Hoon was present with his graphophone.

AT THE SEMINARY.

Preparations for the Opening of the New Session.

Preparations are being made for the opening of the new session at Union Theological Seminary next month. There is already an enrollment of twenty new students, giving promise of a fine junior class. The buildings have all been thoroughly renovated and made ready, and the grounds are green and very attractive.

Dr. W. W. Moore returns with his family on the last day of August. He will be in the city for the purpose of considering matters relating to the Seminary after his long stay abroad.

The session will begin on the second Wednesday in September. Prospects are very bright for an excellent year.

BIG BOXING BOUT.

Returns from the Ring Po-Night at Sparks & Black's.

Great interest is being taken in the big boxing match which takes place to-night before the Yosemite Club, in Sparks, between Jim Jeffries and Jim Corbett.

Betting is slow and carries by odds, the earliest being 7 to 1 on Jeff.

The returns will be given out at Sparks and Black's, round by round, over a direct wire to the city, and will be carried through microphones by Jim Bacci, the well known local sporting man.

Owing to the difference in time it will be after midnight when the big fighters get together. There will be several preliminary bouts, between Jeff and Corbett, and between other local fighters.

The prospects are that there will be the largest attendance of any prize fight.

CITY COMMITTEE TO MEET TO-NIGHT.

The City Democratic Committee will meet at Murphy's Hotel at 8 o'clock to-night for the purpose of considering matters relating to the legislative primary to be held on September 22 to nominate one candidate for the Senate and five for the House of Delegates.

The plan has been made, and but little remains to be done by the body. All candidates must file their names with the chairman of the committee on or before noon on August 24 in order to have their names placed upon the rolls and to be voted for in the primary. So far the following gentlemen have entered the field:

For the Senate, Hon. A. C. Harman.

For the House—Major L. T. Christian, General Charles J. Anderson, Hon. Chas. M. Wallace, J. C. Campbell, Harry Lee Watson, Hon. S. L. Kelley, Mr. Edwin P. Cox and Captain E. B. Thomason.

Messrs. Wallace, Kelley and Christian are members of the present House.

Prominent Visitors.

Among the prominent visitors registered at Murphy's are Mr. Julian J. Ruffin, of Hanover, former president of the State Board of Agriculture; Mr. J. Norment Powell, of Bristol, governor of the other Virginia Coal and Iron Company; and Mr. Dudley R. Cowles, of Williamsburg.

Mr. Williams Here.

Ex-Senator Thos. N. Williams, of Mechanicsville, is in the city, and is stopping at Murphy's.

Mr. Williams says it is probable that Capt. S. P. Read, the present member of the House of Delegates from his county, will be renominated and re-elected this fall.

TO REHABILITATE SUBURBAN LINES.

New Rails for Passenger and Power Company Here.

Work to Begin.

The new rails ordered by the Virginia Passenger and Power Company for the rehabilitation of the suburban and some of the city lines of the company are arriving now, and work will soon be well under way. More than a hundred laborers will be given employment in the work. The new rails and the entire safety of the lines will be the entire safety of riding at any time, and in the evenings the cars seem to be well filled as it is comfortable for them to be. The company admits that some people are still
